ABOUT US Through building and supporting many other businesses like yours, Terrance Vlach continues to consult and manage hundreds of clients large and small. It all began in Rochester, MN in 1986. Today, Emergent is vastly becoming one of the most trusted and renowned Business Technology Advisors in Rochester and the Twin Cities Metro Area. Our Objective is to provide local area Business Owners and Entrepreneurs with the tools necessary to succeed through advances in Integrated Technologies relative to their specific Business Model. With the help and ongoing support of our Expert Team Members and Resources along the way, we're sure to help you and your company reach new heights.
